

Releasing a Call

You may release a call without setting down the handset or end a procedure with the Release function.

When using the Optiguide menu,

- When “Release?” is presented, selecting it will end the call or procedure.

When using a programmed key,

- Press the “Release” key to end the call or procedure.

